Step 1: Visit the site quizizz.com and Click on Sign up for free (Teachers)

The screenshot shows the Quizizz homepage. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for 'For Schools', 'For Work', 'Plans', 'Solutions', 'Resources', 'School Plan Quote', 'Enter code', 'Login', and 'Sign up'. Below the navigation, a large tagline reads 'It matters how you ask'. A sub-tagline below it says 'Assessment, instruction, and practice that motivate every learner to mastery'. There are two main sign-up buttons: a purple one for 'TEACHERS' with the text 'Sign up for free >' and a grey one for 'ADMINS' with the text 'Learn more >'. A callout bubble says 'Reorder'. Below these buttons, a badge states 'Used by 50 million+ educators around the world'. At the bottom left, there's a language selection dropdown set to 'English ▾'.

Step 2: Create a login via any means

The screenshot shows the Quizizz sign-up page. The URL in the address bar is quizizz.com/signup?source=homepage_hero_cta&fromBrowserLoad=true&lng=en. The page has a dark purple header with the Quizizz logo, a 'Join a game' button, and a 'Log in' button. The main content area is titled 'Welcome to Quizizz' and says 'Create a free account in 2 steps'. It features three main sign-up options: 'Continue with Google', 'Continue with phone number', and 'Continue with Email'. Below these, there's a section for social logins with icons for Facebook, Microsoft, and Apple. To the right of the sign-up form, there's a photograph of a classroom scene with students at desks and a teacher at the front of the room. The teacher is raising her fist in excitement, and the words 'JOIN CODE' and '530808' are visible on the board behind her.

Step 3: You will be ending up in this screen

The main content area is titled "Where are you using Quizizz?" and contains three options: "School" (for K-12 teachers, administrators, and students), "Work" (for organizations including NGOs, Government, and Professionals), and "Personal use" (to explore the product for personal use). Each option has a small icon: a school building for School, an office building for Work, and a house for Personal use.
